

Chief Executive Director

Joan Hartman, M.Ed., brings 30 years of leadership experience along with her passion for helping individuals with behavioral health disorders achieve and sustain recovery to her role as Chief Executive Officer.

Governing Board of Directors

Todd Bunton, CFA, works in the Investments department at COUNTRY Financial.

Keith Gehrand currently works at Heartland Community College in public safety and emergency management. Keith is retired Captain of the Illinois State University Police Department, a trainer for the Illinois Fire Service Institute, Illinois School Campus Safety Program and consultant to the public and private sector.

Bob Keller served as director of the McLean County Health Department for 20 – years prior to his retirement in 2009. Bob served as president of three statewide associations during his tenure. Bob continues doing management consulting work for health departments and not-for-profits.

Tom Lamonica has served as a communication professional and communication educator for more than 45 years. In addition to his consulting work, he is a faculty member in the School of Communication at Illinois State University, teaching public relations, leading the internship program and working on special projects for the school.

William (Bill) Mullins is a graduate of Illinois State University with over 25 years experience in the financial services industry.

Dr. Mark Swerdlik, Ph.D. ABPP is a licensed school and clinical psychologist, board certified in school psychology. Retired from Illinois State University's Psychology Department, Dr. Swerdlik continues to provide professional service to the National Association of School Psychologists, Illinois School Psychologist Association and the Illinois School Psychology Internship Consortium and serves as a consultant to school districts and graduate programs in school psychology.

Stacy Post completed the Mental Health First Aid USA certification on February 23, 2018. She has worked at COUNTRY Financial since 2002 and in Human Resources since 2005 with a focus on retirement benefits and helping employees plan for retirement. Prior to working at COUNTRY Financial, she worked as a counselor at The Hour House in Charleston, IL.

Dr. Doris Houston, former Director of the School of Social Work at Illinois State University, currently serves as the University's first Assistant to the President for Diversity and Inclusion. In her inaugural position Dr. Houston provides leadership to academic departments and campus units in their efforts to advance equity, diversity, and inclusion. Her role extends to the community and includes engaging with stakeholders at the local, state and national levels.

Ed McKibbin is an attorney at Dunn Law Firm who has practiced law for over 20 years including 15 years as an attorney at Illinois State University, and at Haessler Sullivan Klein and McKibbin, Ltd. in Wahoo, Nebraska.

Dr. Brea Banks is Co-Director of the African American Studies Program and Assistant Professor of Psychology with Illinois State University. Dr. Banks is a licensed school and clinical psychologist with research interests that include the cognitive consequences of micro aggression and more broadly the experiences of K-12 and university students of color. Her teaching interests surround cognitive assessment, multicultural counseling, and social just issues in psychology.